

Registration information

Government innovation based on emerging technologies

Organized by:

Training details

Modality: Online instructor led

Dates: 04 Nov 2020 - 29 Nov 2020

Training fees: $0.00

Language: English, English

Registration deadline: 08 Nov 2020

Contact: hhlee@nia.or.kr

Training description

Description: Telecommunication and ICT networks and services can enable the government to expand access to its government services, health care, education, agricultural services, financial and banking services, and market information to the public. This course aims to equip participants with the skills to improve the quality of public service through government innovation using emerging technologies and recognize the importance of building a trustworthy government. Learning outcomes: Upon completion of this training course, participants will be able to: - apply the concept of government innovation and change management; - understand the different emerging technologies such as cloud, blockchain, AI and data; - discuss the many best practices of major countries' government innovation using emerging technologies; and - understand relevant issue related to government innovation and change management. Audience: Senior officials of the ITU members, who are interested in government innovation and emerging technologies

For more information about the training objectives, target population, entry requirements, methodology, evaluation and content, consult the page here.

How to register

In order to register for the training, applicants should:

1. Create an ITU Academy account here
2. Register for the course here

The ITU Academy is the International Telecommunication Union leading platform for capacity development initiatives.

International Telecommunication Union
Place des Nations, 1211 Geneva 20
Switzerland