Subject: Centre of Excellence (ITU ASP CoE) online training course on “IoT Sensors and Network for Disaster Communication”, 20 - 31 July 2020.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to invite your organisation to participate in the onlinetraining course on “IoT Sensors and Network for Disaster Communication” for the Asia-pacific region to be conducted from 20 to 31 July 2020. This training course is organised jointly by the International Telecommunication Union and Advanced Level Telecom Training Centre (ALTTC) as ITU Centre of Excellence in the priority area of Wireless and Fixed Broadband for the Asia-Pacific region. The training will be delivered in English through the ITU Academy platform.

This online training course aims to equip participants with an understanding of the critical role of digital technologies in the four phases of disaster management and in risk reduction activities, the IoT concepts and advanced wireless sensor-based networks for early warning and disaster preparedness, last mile connectivity challenges and the roles of digital twins in disaster risk models.

The training course targets organisation and industry executives, managers, engineers and technical staff from regulators, policymakers, telecom operators, academia and government organisations who are interested in understanding the latest development in disaster communication.

Detailed information on this training course is described in the course outline, which can also be downloaded from the ITU Academy portal at the following link <https://academy.itu.int/index.php/training-courses/full-catalogue/iot-sensors-and-network-disaster-communication>.

Registration should be made online at the aforementioned link no later than 19 July 2020. Payment details are specified in the course outline.

Mr Sean Doral (sean.doral@itu.int) from the ITU and Mr Subhash Chand (subhash.iitr83@gmail.com) from ALTTC, India, are at your disposal if you need any more information.

We look forward to your active participation in this training course.

Yours faithfully,
